Curricular Conversations Play Is The Missing Thing Studies In Curriculum Theory Series:

Curricular Conversations Margaret Macintyre Latta, 2013 Curricular Conversations is about play as a medium for teaching and learning that asks teachers and students to participate through adapting changing building and creating meaning Curricular Conversations Margaret Macintyre Latta, 2013-01-04 The central theme of Curricular Conversations is this Play is the thing that brings aesthetic curricular complications near educators and their students making the lived consequences very vivid tangible and possible Viewing curriculum as genuine inquiry into what is worth knowing rather than simply a curricular document this book explores the significances instilled and nurtured through aesthetic play Each chapter delves into the space a given artwork reveals The artworks act as points of departure and or generative vehicles foregrounding the roles and possibilities of play within curricular conversations Looking at relevant educational issues traditions and theorists through an illuminating lens this book speaks to curriculum theorists and arts educators everywhere

Expanding Curriculum Theory William M. Reynolds, Julie A. Webber, 2016-04-28 Expanding Curriculum Theory Second Edition carries through the major focus of the original volume to reflect on the influence of Deleuze and Guattari's concept of lines of flight and its application to curriculum theorizing What is different is that the lines of flight have since shifted and produced expanded understandings of this concept for curriculum theory and for education in general This edition reflects the impact of events that have contributed to this shift in particular the il logic of school policy changes and reforms in the past decade and the continued explosion of social media and its effect on the collective understanding of how both knowledge and education work as forms of repression The introduction updates the text and puts it into current debates in the field and in the larger socio economic milieu New dis positions are presented that explore central questions circulating within and outside curriculum studies Exciting scholarship on a range of topics includes notions of desire and commodities youth culture and violence new directions in curriculum theory Eco Ethical consciousness new Deleuzian views of normality the diffusion of technology and lines of flight in transnational curriculum inquiry The Concept of Care in Curriculum Studies

Jung-Hoon Jung, 2015-12-22 The question at the heart of the book is what might an education with self care and care for others look like Juxtaposing self understanding through the method of currere and the historical character of hakbeolism a concept indigenous to Korea referring to a kind of social status people achieve based on a shared academic background this book articulates how subjective reconstruction of self in conjunction with historical study can be transformative and how this can be extended to social change Articulating how having one's own standard can be a way of making one's life a work of art the author looks at how Korean schooling exercises coercive care disconfirmation and the whip of love for the children's own good Emphasis is given to the internalized status of these practices in both students and teachers and to teachers and parents culpability not only in exercising but also in reproducing these practices through themselves Going beyond describing and analysing the educational problem of academic intellectual achievement oriented education based on aggressive competition this book suggests ways to address these issues through autobiography using the method of currere to reconstruct one's subjectivity and an ethic of care Self-Study of Language and Literacy Teacher Education Practices Judy Sharkey, Megan Madigan Peercy, 2018-08-16 Self Study in Teacher Education Practices STEP contribute to teacher education in culturally and linguistically diverse communities and contexts The chapters reflect the scholarly inquiry of teacher educators dedicated to investigating and improving their practice Provoking Curriculum Studies Nicholas Ng-a-Fook, Awad Ibrahim, Giuliano Reis, 2015-08-11 Provoking Curriculum Studies pushes forward a strong reading of the theoretical and methodological innovations taking place within curriculum studies research Addressing an important gap in contemporary curriculum studies conceptualizing scholars as poets and the potential of the poetic in education it offers a framework for doing curriculum work at the intersection of the arts social theory and curriculum studies Drawing on poetic inquiry psychoanalysis phenomenology life writing and several types of arts based research methodologies this diverse collection spotlights the intellectual genealogies of curriculum scholars such as Ted Aoki Geoffrey Milburn and Roger Simon whose provocations inquiries and recursive questioning link the writing and re writing of curriculum theory to acts of strong poetry Readers are urged to imagine alternative ways in which professors teachers and university students might not only engage with but disrupt blur and complicate curriculum theory across interdisciplinary topographies in order to seek out blind impresses those areas of knowledge that are left over unaddressed by mainstream curriculum scholarship and that instigate difficult questions about death trauma prejudice poverty colonization and more Social Efficiency and Instrumentalism in Education James M. Magrini, 2014-04-03 Distinct among contemporary philosophical studies focused on education this book engages the history of phenomenological thought as it moves from philosophy proper the European phenomenological hermeneutic tradition through curriculum studies It thus presents the best of both worlds for the reader there is a play or movement from philosophy proper to educational philosophy and then back again in order to locate and explicate what is intimated suggested and in some cases left unsaid by educational philosophers This amounts to a work on education philosophy that elucidates through various permutations within the unique foci of each essay the general phenomenological theme of the fundamental ontology of the human being as primordial learner Reflecting his experience as scholar teacher and perennial learner the author suggests how research in phenomenology might prove beneficial to the enhancement of both the theoretical and practical aspects of education readers are invited to envision education as far more than merely a means by which to organize an effective learning experience in which knowledge is assimilated and skill sets are efficiently imparted but rather as a holistic and integrated process in which knowing acting and valuing are original ways of Being in the world Disney, Culture, and Curriculum Jennifer A. Sandlin, Julie C. Garlen, 2016-03-10 A presence for decades in individuals everyday life practices and identity formation the Walt Disney Company has more recently also become an influential element within the big curriculum of public and private spaces outside of yet in proximity to formal educational institutions Disney Culture and Curriculum explores the myriad ways that Disney's curricula and pedagogies manifest in public consciousness cultural discourses and the education system Examining Disney's historical development and contemporary manifestations this book critiques and deconstructs its products and perspectives while providing insight into Disney's operations within popular culture and everyday life in the United States and beyond The contributors engage with Disney's curricula and pedagogies in a variety of ways through critical analysis of Disney films theme parks and planned communities how Disney has been taught and resisted both in and beyond schools ways in which fans and consumers develop and negotiate their identities with their engagement with Disney and how race class gender sexuality and consumerism are constructed through Disney content Incisive comprehensive and highly interdisciplinary Disney Culture and Curriculum extends the discussion of popular culture as curriculum and pedagogy into new avenues by focusing on the affective and ontological aspects of identity development as well as the commodification of social and cultural identities experiences and subjectivities

International Handbook of Curriculum Research William F. Pinar, 2013-10-15 Continuing its calling to define the field and where it is going the Second Edition of this landmark handbook brings up to date its comprehensive reportage of scholarly developments and school curriculum initiatives worldwide providing a panoramic view of the state of curriculum studies globally Its international scope and currency and range of research and theory reflect and contribute significantly to the ongoing internationalization of curriculum studies and its growth as a field worldwide Changes in the Second Edition Five new or updated introductory chapters pose transnational challenges to key questions curriculum research addresses locally Countries absent in the First Edition are represented Chile Colombia Cyprus Ethiopia Germany Iran Luxembourg Nigeria Peru Poland Portugal Singapore South Africa Spain and Switzerland 39 new or updated chapters on curriculum research in 34 countries highlight curriculum research that is not widely known in North America This handbook is an indispensable resource for prospective and practicing teachers for curriculum studies scholars and for education students around the world

Nonviolence and Education Hongyu Wang, 2014-02-03 In current global politics which positions China as a competitor to American leadership in depth understandings of transnational mutual engagement are much needed for cultivating nonviolent relations Exploring American and Chinese professors' experiences at the intersection of the individual society and history and weaving the autobiographical and the global this book furthers understanding of their cross cultural personal awareness and educational work at universities in both countries While focusing on life histories it also draws on both American and Chinese intellectual traditions such as American nonviolence activism Taoism and Buddhism to formulate a vision of nonviolence in curriculum studies Centering cross cultural education and pedagogy about for and through nonviolence this volume contributes to internationalizing curriculum studies and introduces curriculum theorizing at the level of higher education Hongyu Wang brings together stories dialogues and juxtapositions of cross cultural pathways and pedagogies in a powerful case for theorizing and performing nonviolence education as visionary work in the internationalization of curriculum studies
