particularly as a reference work for opera producers students performers and writers this book provides basic production information about more than 500 operas Anyone planning to produce an opera will find here the essential information he needs in order to judge whether a given opera is appropriate to his resources for production Information for individual operas is given concerning the number and importance of settings size of orchestra chorus and ballet number of singers their relative importance and individual requirements sources for obtaining musical materials previous performances in America and the opera story its period and composer Extensive information about 150 full length operas and 109 short operas is provided with supplementary information about more than 260 other operas The operas are alphabetized by title for easy reference In order to condense the information as much as possible codes and abbreviations are used with keys and indexes at the back of the book This book will be invaluable to those working in either amateur or professional companies in opera workshops in school college or civic opera groups Those whose interest in opera is confined to the other side of the footlights will find the book absorbing too just as a glimpse backstage would be Arias, Ensembles, & Choruses John Yaffé, David Daniels, 2011-11-17 Conductors John Yaff and David Daniels have created a one stop sourcebook for orchestras opera companies conductors and librarians who research and or prepare programs of vocal excerpts such as solos ensembles and choruses for concert performance In this book readers will find detailed information on a vast repertoire of vocal pieces commonly extracted from operas operettas musicals and oratorios more than 1 750 excerpts from 450 parent works Modeled on Daniels Orchestral Music Arias Ensembles Choruses includes basic historical details about each parent work as well as extract titles subtitles voice types keys durations locations in the original work with page numbers in both full scores and piano vocal scores and exact instrumentation It also lists the publishers that make available the orchestral materials for just the excerpt being programmed independent of the full parent work Until now conductors and orchestra librarians commonly had to first leaf through full scores searching for one elusive three minute aria after another only to then consult multiple publishers catalogues to compile crucial information on all the excerpts proposed for a concert or recording This book constitutes a single source for finding that information In many cases the individual entries include valuable insider information on common performance practice including start and stop points transpositions and conventional cuts Searching for repertoire is made easy with the detailed title index and appendixes devoted to ensemble excerpts all categorized by personnel e g duets trios quartets quintets sextets choruses and language Czech English French German Italian Latin Russian This book is the ideal tool for the working conductor and orchestral librarian as well as music program directors at colleges and conservatories opera companies and symphony orchestras As of October 2015 a new printing of this book has occurred to correct errors in the index A PDF version of the new index is available to previous purchasers of the volume Please contact Rowman Littlefield s music editor for assistance The Supervisors Service Bulletin ,1923 A Conductor's Guide to Choral-orchestral Works, Twentieth Century, Part II Jonathan D. Green, 1998 This innovative survey of large choral orchestral works is a continuation of the author's previous study of twentieth century works with English texts. Green examines nearly one hundred works from Rachmaninov's Vesna to Penderecki's Song of Songs. For each work he provides a biography of the composer, complete instrumentation, text sources, editions, availability of performing materials, performance issues, discography, and bibliography of the composer and the work. Based upon direct score study, each work has been evaluated in terms of potential performance problems, rehearsal issues, and level of difficulty for both the choir and orchestra. When present, solo roles are described. The composers represented in this work include Bela Bartok, Leonard Bernstein, Ernest Bloch, Maurice Duruf, Hans Werner Henze, Paul Hindemith, Arthur Honegger, Leos Janacek, Gyorgy Ligeti, Gustav Mahler, Carl Orff, Krzysztof Penderecki, Francis Poulenc, Igor Stravinsky, Anton Webern, and Kurt Weill. Written as a field guide for conductors and others involved in programming concerts for choir and orchestra, this text will prove a useful source of new repertoire ideas and an invaluable aid to rehearsal preparation.
